Remember...Football is fun

Football is only part of your child's life

Only offer positive comments

Offer to help at the club

Talk with the coach

Be patient with your child

Always praise and encourage your child to improve

Lead by example

Let the coach's, coach and the children play

Instil the need for commitment

Show support and respect for all

Fair play should be encouraged

Understand what your child wants from football

Not is football only for children, it's also for you
